

Information Station—Truly Outstanding Friendly Service

“Excuse me, where can we taste great food?” “Excuse me, what are the specialty products of this region?” If you have any question during your journey in Taiwan, come to the Information Station and say “Excuse me~” You may be pleasantly surprised!

In order to help independent travelers have their question answered via friendly, Taiwanese-style service, the Taiwan Tourism Bureau has collaborates with friendly stores and service providers throughout Taiwan to establish “Information Stations” that help visitors in Taiwan.

You can spot an “Information Station” by its yellow, round “Information Station” sign with black letters. Besides wall maps and friendly travel information services, the station also has a Wi-Fi hotspots and QR codes that guide visitors to a variety of cloud-based travel services.

Information Stations add “local characteristics” and “hospitality” to your journey. The aim is to create moving experiences that will encourage visitors to come back time after time, so that they can continue to enjoy the beauty of Taiwan and the warm hospitality of her people.

Come on, don't be shy; everyone is invited to make inquiries at the “Information Station”!
